

When you import mesh from ExodusII or CUBIT's .cub file formats, the metadata like blocks, nodesets, and sidesets get put into entity sets in MOAB. These sets are tagged with specific tags to identify them. See this page for a description of how this is done for blocks/nodesets/sidesets.